Contract Terms and Conditions

I. Eligibility

A. To be eligible to purchase a Commuter Student Meal Plan, a person must be a student enrolled in and attending classes at the University of North Texas at Dallas. Students residing in the Residence Hall are not eligible for a commuter meal plan. The University reserves the right not to contract with persons who are currently violating the terms and conditions of a housing and/or meal plan contract, or who have previously violated the terms and conditions of a housing and/or meal plan contract, or who have violated University and/or Campus Dining Services rules or regulations, or who have a past due balance with the University.

II. Contract Period

A. The period of this contract is the full academic term marked below (academic year, fall or spring semester). If the person contracts after the first day of classes of the term for which he/she is contracting, the person will be charged from the date he/she signs the meal plan contract and purchases a meal plan until the end of the term. Meal service will begin with breakfast on the official first day of classes each semester and end with lunch on the last day of final exams for each semester.

Meal service will be limited during Thanksgiving and Spring breaks. Meal service will not be available during winter break. The University shall not be responsible for any failure to provide meals in the event conditions exist not wholly within its control (e.g. Acts of God, fire, strikes, public disturbances, natural disasters, etc.).

B. Cafeteria operational hours and programs are at the discretion of University Housing and Campus Dining Services and may be changed at any time. No specific program, hours or dining unit availability is guaranteed.

III. Charges and Payments

A. Meal plan rates vary according to the plan selected.

B. Meal plan charges will be applied to student account. Student can pay account online or pay in person at the University cashier’s window. Unless otherwise stated herein, meal plan charges applied to student account are subject to and governed by the UNT Dallas Financial Terms and Conditions of Attendance.

C. The contractee is responsible for paying all meal plan charges for the entire term of the contract whether or not the plan is used. There is no refund of meals used during a semester. Unused meals do not carry over to the next semester.

IV. Termination of contract by contractee

Contractee may not terminate this contract except upon official withdrawal from the University or under extraordinary circumstances with approval in writing from University Housing. Meal plan charges for persons who withdraw or who are granted approval to terminate the contract will be pro-rated as of the date the student officially withdraws from the University, the date University Housing grants approval for termination of the contract, or the date University Housing receives written notification from the contractee of the withdrawal and termination, whichever date is later.

V. Termination of the contract by the University

The University may terminate this contract and immediately cancel a meal plan for any of the following reasons:

1. Failure to pay any charges or payments by the required date(s).
2. Violation of University, University Housing or Campus Dining Services policies, rules or regulations, including, but not limited to, those set out in the University Housing Handbook, as well as the UNT Dallas Financial Terms and Conditions of Attendance. If a meal plan is cancelled due a violation, the University would prorate the meal plan based upon the amount of usage and date of cancellation.

VI. Changes in Meal Plans

Meal plans are personal, non-transferable, and non-assessible. Meal plans are for an entire semester and written requests for changes can only be made each semester through the eleventh day of classes. Requests for changes must be made to the Housing and Residence Life office at pedile@untdallas.edu. After the eleventh day of classes each semester no change in meal plan will be allowed until the next semester.
